Thought for the Week

The garden foretells of a coming abandonment. His friends will soon leave him. His enemies will soon consume him. And his Father will soon “forsake” him as well. It is far more than mere pity that draws us to this man. It is the hope that there, in the mind-crushing loneliness of solitary anticipation, Jesus takes upon himself all my deepest fears of abandonment. And in absorbing them, he neutralizes them three short days later in order to secure for me the certainty that whatever loneliness I feel on this day or any other can never be ultimate, can never be the only true thing about me...as loneliness so often feels.

-Les Newsom

Memory Verse for December

But he [Christ Jesus] was pierced for our transgressions;
he was crushed for our iniquities;
upon him was the chastisement that brought us peace,
and with his wounds we are healed.

-Isa. 53:5
