

Daily Bible Reading Plan

We are reading through parts of the Old Testament for the rest of the year, starting with the Psalms. Don't get discouraged if you miss several days. Pick back up with today's date and watch God speak to you through His Word. God's blessings rest upon those who read and live by His Word. "Your word is a lamp to my feet, and a light to my path!" Ps. 119:105.

Thought for the Week

Perhaps it isn't sins so much as sufferings that cause some of us to question the perseverance of the heart of Christ. As pain piles up, as numbness takes over, as the months go by, at some point the conclusion seems obvious: we have been cast out. Surely this is not what life would feel like for one who has been buried in the heart of a gentle and lowly Savior? But Jesus does not say that those with pain-free lives are never cast out. He says those who come to him are never cast out. It is not what life brings to us but to whom we belong that determines Christ's heart of love for us. The only thing required to enjoy such love is to come to him. To ask him to take us in.

October Bible Memory Verse

God will be the stability of your times, a wealth of salvation, wisdom, and knowledge.

Isaiah 33:6

Confession of Sin & Assurance of Pardon

Leader: Jesus says “All that the Father gives me will come to me, and whoever comes to me I will never cast out.” John 6:37

Congregation: Lord Jesus I come to you for forgiveness this morning. I’ve really messed up again, in all kinds of ways this week.

Leader: Jesus says “Come to me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your soul.” Matthew 11:28-30

Congregation: But there’s a perversity deep down inside me that is hidden from everyone else and I’m embarrassed to talk about it.

Leader: Jesus says, “I have searched you. I know you. I know all your ways. I know all your thoughts.” Psalm 139:1-5

Congregation: O Lord, the issue isn’t just my past. It’s my present too. I don’t know if I can break free of these sins any time soon.

Leader: Jesus says, “I know. That’s why I died. For your sake I became sin so that in me you might become righteous.” 1 Cor. 15:3, 2 Cor. 5:21

Congregation: My great fear is that the more ugliness you discover in me, the sooner you’ll get fed up with me.

Leader: Jesus says, “Nothing can separate you from my love, not trouble, not hardship, not death, not life, not angels, not demons, neither can anything in your present nor your future ever separate you from Me.” Romans 8:35-39

Silent Moment for Private Prayer & Confession

Assurance of Pardon: The LORD will fulfill his purpose for me; your steadfast love, O LORD, endures forever.

Psalm 138:8
