Sermon Notes

Temple Building Campaign of 538-516BC

The 2 Prophets: Haggai & Zechariah

Haggai encouraged the returned Jewish exiles to rebuild the temple; Zechariah encouraged them to repent from their sins and renew their relationship with God so they would be ready to worship in the new temple. It took them 22 years to rebuild it.

The 2 public figures mentioned:

Joshua the High Priest

Zerubbabel the Governor (king) of Jerusalem

All four were commanded by God to rebuild the Temple in Jerusalem that was destroyed during the exile.

Thought for the Week

Jesus is not going to leave you half way across the bog. That is not His manner of guiding us. He began; He will finish. Remember the words of Paul: "He who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ." If the seed of the kingdom is in our hearts, though it be but as a grain of mustard seed, be sure of this, that He will watch over it and bless the springing thereof. So, although when we think of ourselves, our own slowness of progress, our own feeble resolutions, our own wayward hearts, our many temptations, our many corruptions, we may well say to ourselves, "Will there ever be any greater completeness in this terribly imperfect Christian character of mine than there is today?" But think of Christ who works on us and in us and for us. If we lift up our hearts to Him, and keep ourselves near Him, and let Him work, He will work. God is faithful and He will do it.

Alexander Maclaren

October Bible Memory Verse

This is the word of the LORD to Zerubbabel: Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, says the LORD of hosts.

Zechariah 4:6

Confession of Sin & Assurance of Pardon

Adapted from The Valley of Vision, A collection of Puritan Prayers & Devotions

Leader: Sovereign commander of the universe, we are sadly harassed by doubts, fears, unbelief, in a felt spiritual darkness.

Congregation: Our hearts are full of evil thoughts and we act as if we have no faith at all.

Leader: Give us peace of soul, confidence, enlargement of mind, and morning joy after a sleepless night of heaviness.

Congregation: Your grace can melt the worst sinner, and I am as bad as he. Yet You have made me a monument of mercy and a trophy of Your redeeming power.

Leader: In our many earthly distresses, help us not to forget this fact.

Congregation: All wise and good God, out of our sorrow, give us Your satisfying presence, help us to love You as Your child, and to walk worthy of our heavenly name.

Silent Moment for Prayer

Assurance of Pardon: I am sure of this, that he who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ. Therefore, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling, for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure.

Philippians 1:6, 2:13
