Sermon Notes

Thought for the Week

The Lord Jesus redeems us from the curse that awaits us as lawbreakers by taking the curse Himself. That's why you cannot understand Christmas without Calvary.

Alistair Begg

December Bible Memory Verse

For to us a child is born, to us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder, and his name shall be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

Isaiah 9:6

Confession of Sin & Assurance of Pardon

Minister: When Jesus was physically born, he became like us except for sin. He grew and matured as we do, he shared our sorrows and was tempted as we are and yet never gave in to temptation and sinned. Even though he was the eternal Son of God, he learned obedience through what he suffered. Therefore, he can sympathize with our weaknesses. With this assurance, let us confess our sins to God.

Congregation: Lord Jesus, all year long we've pursued security and peace in our own strength and in our own ways. We are exhausted from our pursuit of these things.

Minister: All year long we've pursued money and material things in the misguided hope that they will make us happy. We are disillusioned by our disappointments.

Congregation: Forgive us our sins and deliver us from our sorrows. Under your wings we have come to take refuge! We know that you alone offer what is lasting and most satisfying. You are the gift that we must need.

Silent Moment for Prayer

Assurance of Pardon: When the fullness of time had come, God sent his Son, born of a woman, in order to redeem us. For Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. Therefore, to those who have confessed their sins, your sins are now forgiven through Christ our Savior.

Gal. 4:4-5, 1 Timothy 1:15

Events & Announcements

Tonight is our Ladies annual Christmas party 6:00 p.m @ the Oakbridge Community Center. For questions please call Debbie Harris 304-553-6024 or Vicki Hall 304-561-8172.

Ministering to our older folks – We have a handful of older folks who have frequent medical appointments, and getting to and from these appointments can be a challenge without the help of another person. If you are looking for a tangible way to be used here at Redeemer, would you consider helping in this way? This would entail driving the person to his/her appointment, possibly pushing a wheelchair, etc. If you are interested in helping, please reach out to Kurt at 304-531-4524. There is no long-term commitment, so you can accept or decline any appointment based on your schedule.

Point Pleasant worship service is tonight, December 8, 6pm, at the Point Pleasant Youth Center! The address is 205 Camden Ave, Point Pleasant, WV.
