Thought for the Week

Waiting on God is restorative. It is one of the tools God uses to remake us into what we were designed to be in the beginning. Yet I don't like to wait, and I struggle to wait well. How about you? The next time God calls you to wait...picture in your mind the nimble and skilled fingers of a potter who is putting pressure on the clay right where it's needed so that it will take on the beauty that is its potential. And with this picture in mind, give thanks for the very moment that once would have driven you crazy.

November Bible Memory Verse

God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that in all things, at all times, having all that you need, you will abound in every good work.

2 Corinthians 9:8

Confession of Sin & Assurance of Pardon

Leader: Heavenly Father, your mercies are new every morning, and your grace sustains us each day.

Congregation: You have saved us from sin and death, reconciled us to yourself, and given us real hope. You have protected us from harm, fed and clothed us, and provided for us in so many other ways.

Leader: But we admit that we are ungrateful at times.

Congregation: We tend to forget our blessings and only remember our unmet desires. We can complain about almost everything. Forgive us for our lack of gratitude and our foggy memories of all the good you have done for us. Fill us with thankfulness so that we may say with psalmist: "I will give thanks to the LORD with my whole heart; I will recount all of your wonderful deeds." We ask all this in the name of Jesus. Amen.

Silent Moment for Private Confession

Assurance of Pardon: The steadfast love of the LORD never ceases; his mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning; great is your faithfulness. "The LORD is my portion," says my soul, "therefore I will hope in him."

Lamentations 3:22-24
