Our Mission Statement

We are a community of praying Christians called by God to worship Him; intentionally share Jesus' story with others; baptize those who accept Christ, enfolding them into the family of God; and joyfully disciple Christians to think Biblically about life.

(Matthew 28:16-20)

Thought for the Week

Our Lord Jesus is the Great Warrior who will overcome the rebellious kings and their armies (Rev. 19:11-21), redeem his people, and judge the entire earth (Mt. 25:31-46). At His coming, Jesus will fully establish his dominion over the created world in “righteousness” and “equity.” The godly long for this redemption. Jesus is their Redeemer, and his redemption extends to all facets of their well-being – reconciliation, forgiveness, communion with God, freedom, and the glorious experience of unrestrained joy. This hope, even when not fully realized, gives ground for confidence in the midst of life situations that are despairing, gives reason for hope in the victorious establishment of God’s kingdom, and gives cause for rejoicing today.

November Bible Memory Verse

God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that in all things, at all times, having all that you need, you will abound in every good work.

2 Corinthians 9:8

Confession of Our Christian Faith

Heidelberg Catechism & Westminster Shorter Catechism

1. Christian, what is your only comfort in life and death?

That I with body and soul, both in life and death, am not my own, but belong unto my faithful Savior Jesus Christ; who, with His precious blood, has fully satisfied for all my sins, and delivered me from all the power of the devil; and so preserves me that without the will of my heavenly Father, not a hair can fall from my head; yes, that all things must be subservient to my salvation, and therefore, by His Holy Spirit, He also assures me of eternal life, and makes me sincerely willing and ready, henceforth, to live unto Him.

2. Christian, what is the chief end of man?

Man's chief end is to glorify God, and to enjoy Him forever.
