Our Mission Statement

We are a community of praying Christians called by God to worship Him; intentionally share Jesus' story with others; baptize those who accept Christ, enfolding them into the family of God; and joyfully disciple Christians to think Biblically about life.

(Matthew 28:16-20)

Thought for the Week

Come, then, magnify the Lord with me. Let us adore Him for His love, that love which has a height, and depth, and length, and breadth, beyond the grasp of our poor conceptions; a love that moved Him to empty Himself, to take on Him the form of a servant, and to be obedient, unto death, even the death of the cross; a love that pitied us in our lost estate, that found us when we sought Him not, that spoke peace to our souls in the day of our distress; a love that bears with all our present weakness, mistakes, backslidings, and shortcomings; a love that is always watchful, always ready to guide, to comfort, and to heal; a love that will not be wearied, cannot be conquered, and is incapable of changes; a love that will in the end prevail over all opposition, will perfect that which concerns us, and will not leave us till it has brought us perfect holiness and happiness, to rejoice in His presence in glory. The love of Christ! It is the wonder, the joy, the song of angels; and the sense of it shed abroad in our hearts makes life pleasant, and death welcome.

John Newton, 1768

July Bible Memory Verse

Pray then like this: "Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Matthew 6:9-13

Confession of Sin & Assurance of Pardon

Leader: Confession of sin is spiritually healthy for us and Scripture teaches that confession is itself part of the healing God brings to our lives. Therefore, let's confess and receive healing this morning.

Congregation: Heavenly Father, your Word commands us to "continue steadfast in prayer, being watchful in it, with thanksgiving." Yet we are always lamenting how little we pray. Even the command to pray humbles us. So often we would rather worry than pray. Forgive our prayerlessness. How little we trust your goodness and power towards us! Give us a renewed sense of the privilege of prayer because of our adoption as sons and daughters of God. In Jesus' name we ask these things. Amen.

Silent Moment for Private Prayer

Assurance of Pardon: For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, "Abba! Father!"

Romans 8:15
