Our Mission Statement

We are a community of praying Christians called by God to worship Him; intentionally share Jesus' story with others; baptize those who accept Christ, enfolding them into the family of God; and joyfully disciple Christians to think Biblically about life.

(Matthew 28:16-20)

Thought for the Week

It's futile to try to establish your own sovereignty. People don't want you as their king, and God won't forsake his holy throne. I often give way to fantasy that I have the wisdom, power, and character to control people, places, and things in my life that seem to be out of control. I insert myself in the center and make it all about me. But I don't have the right, power, or need to control because you have every situation, every location, and every person under your wise control. You, O Lord, rule over all things for my sake and for your glory. So once again you call me to surrender control and rest in your sovereign care.

Paul David Tripp

July Bible Memory Verse

Pray then like this: "Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Matthew 6:9-13

Confession of Sin & Assurance of Pardon

Adapted from Psalm 18 – The LORD is my Rock and my Fortress

Leader: Heavenly Father, you are our rock, our fortress, our shield and the God of our salvation.

Congregation: We love you and worship you this morning. Your right hand supports us, and you equip us for the battles of life.

Leader: Forgive us for our sins. We humbly admit that we have not listened to you or obeyed you perfectly this week.

Congregation: We have done wrong things, and we have failed to do right things. Our sin grieves us. Have mercy on us and forgive us Heavenly Father.

Leader: For your grace and love towards us we praise you. You are a shield for all who take refuge in you. You do all things well and you give us grace for every trial.

Silent Moment for Private Prayer

Assurance of Pardon: Fear not, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom.

Luke 12:32
