Thought for the Week

John Chrysostom (born 347 AD) notes how even the call to pray operates in relation to those who are not a part of the Lord's people: "The devil knows, yes he knows, how great a good prayer is." We must be diligent in prayer because it is one of the most powerful weapons we have for tearing down the Enemy's strongholds. How much stronger would the church be when facing its adversaries if it prayed according to the will of God, asking the Lord to show forth His power and grace on the behalf of His people?

October Bible Memory Verse

Let the peoples praise you, O God; Let the nations be glad and sing for joy, for you judge the peoples with fairness and guide the nations upon earth.

Psalm 67:3-4

Redeemer Congregation Missions Prayer

& Lk 23:34; Rev.22:20
