REDEEMER CHURCH (PCA)

November 1, 2026

Our Mission Statement

We are a community of praying Christians called by God to worship Him; intentionally share Jesus' story with others; baptize those who accept Christ, enfolding them into the family of God; and joyfully disciple Christians to think Biblically about life.

(Matthew 28:16-20)

Thought for the Week

Let us humble ourselves before God, both for what is past and for the blessings to come. For what is past, let us acknowledge that God has plucked us out of the pit of hell, and that though we were by nature damned, he has condescended to have us as his children. Let us glorify him as he deserves and assure ourselves that he has pulled us back from death so that the beginning, source, root, and only cause of our salvation is his free goodness and grace. In effect, it is a mark of truest humility to give all the glory of our salvation to God.

John Calvin

November Bible Memory Verse

I am sure of this, that He who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ.

Philippians 1:6

Confession of our Christian Faith

Leader: It is better to trust the Lord than to put confidence in man. It is better to trust in the Lord than to put confidence in princes.

Congregation: Christ alone is our hope, our security, and our peace. Christ alone is our righteousness, our wisdom, our sanctification, and our redemption. Therefore, forgive us, Lord, for our misplaced trusts. When we take our eyes off of you, we look to created things to give us peace and security—politicians and elections, money and human relationships. We become our own greatest idols, believing that we can take care of ourselves. Forgive us for this foolishness, Lord, and let us live up to our calling—men, women, and children united to our faithful Savior.

Silent Moment for Personal Confession

Assurance of Pardon: For consider your calling, brothers: not many of you were wise according to worldly standards, not many were powerful, not many were of noble birth. But God chose what is foolish in the world to shame the wise; God chose what is weak in the world to shame the strong; God chose what is low and despised in the world, even things that are not, to bring to nothing things that are, so that no human being might boast in the presence of God. And because of him you are in Christ Jesus, who became to us wisdom from God, righteousness and sanctification and redemption, so that, as it is written, "Let the one who boasts, boast in the Lord."
