Thought for the Week

Let us go back to the man who says that a thing cannot be wrong unless it hurts some other human being. He quite understands that he must not damage the other ships in the convoy, but he honestly thinks that what he does to his own ship is simply his own business. But does it not make a great difference whether his ship is his own property or not? Does it not make a great difference whether I am, so to speak, the landlord of my own mind and body, or only a tenant, responsible to the real landlord? If somebody else made me, for his own purposes, then I shall have a lot of duties which I should not have if I simply belonged to myself.

C.S. Lewis

November Bible Memory Verse

I am sure of this, that He who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ.

Philippians 1:6

Confession of our Christian Faith

Leader: Lord Jesus, we had not yet been born when you took on flesh and came to shed your blood for us. For your sacrifice for us we love you and believe in you and rejoice before you today in worship.

Congregation: We pray that no other trust would ever intrude into our hearts but trust in you. We confess our sinfulness and acknowledge our daily struggles with fear, anger, pride, lust, or anxiety. But we also confess that you are a mighty Savior who forgives our sinful struggles and has secured for us a redemption that cannot be lost.

Silent Moment for Confession & Prayer

Assurance of Pardon: Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! According to his great mercy, he has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

1 Peter 1:3
