Sermon Notes

Thought for the Week

Marriage is the soil for growing glory. We must see our spouses in light of what they are meant to become, without becoming bitter or complacent about who they are. Marriage requires a radical commitment to love our spouses as they are, while longing for them to become what they are not yet. Every marriage moves either toward enhancing one another's glory or toward degrading each other.

You can choose either to live by pretense and self-righteousness or to be broken by your sin and surrender to the gospel. Jesus is the one who gives us the grace that allows us to acknowledge our own sins and also to forgive the sins of our spouses.

Allender/Longman, Intimate Allies

October Bible Memory Verse

This is the word of the LORD to Zerubbabel: Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, says the LORD of hosts.

Zechariah 4:6

Confession of our Christian Faith

Leader: Christian, as someone who believes the Bible to be the very words of God, what does it teach us?

Congregation: We believe in one God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, begotten of His Father before all worlds; God of God, Light of Light, very God of very God; begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father, by whom all things were made; Who, for us men and for our salvation, came down from heaven, and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the virgin Mary, and was made man; and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate; He suffered and was buried; and the third day He rose again according to the Scriptures; and ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father; and He shall come again, with glory, to judge both the living and the dead; Whose kingdom shall have no end.

And we believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and Giver of Life; who proceeds from the Father and the Son; who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified; who spoke by the prophets. And we believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church. We acknowledge one baptism for the remission of sins; and we look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Nicene Creed originated at the Council of Nicea (325 AD) and was adopted by the Council of Chalcedon (451 AD). It was formulated to answer heresies that denied the biblical doctrine of the Trinity and of the person of Christ.
